Subject:- Remission in favour of Lokiah Naidu and others Doddy Kend Farmers of Arsikere and ~~Kothi~~ Kodihalli Circles for 92-93.

Last reference:- Excise Comms No: 430/56 dated 18th July/1896

Lokiah Naidu, Rajagopal Naidu and Dawood Sahib, the three joined together, bought the Arsikere and Kodihalli Circles for the year 92-93 for Rs 4246-4 a month. The formal agreement was entered into on the 17th January/92 By the commencement of the official year, the lessees could only produce one month's cash deposit. 20 days' time was

Subd to see

The total rental due from the defaulting farmers being Rs 5355, and the recoveries Rs 2961-8-11, the balance still due, Viz: 2393-7-1, is now recommended for remission, as irrecoverable. Of this agair, a sum of Rs 1976-4-0 has been already practically given up, as Govt. Mofs 1567-0 dt 20th Feb. 93 have ~~struck~~ ~~the defaulters the difference between the total~~ allowed the arrears the calculated at the reduced rental fetched at the recent sales of the farms. Under the circumstances, the remission may be sanctioned.

allowed for payment of the remaining one months cash deposit or personal security for 3 months as required by the rules. The farmers could bring neither men nor money. The Amildar's report, the deputy Commrs reference to the Excise Asst: Commr, the late Mr Mc Donnel, arrangements for re-Sale according to the suggestion of the latter;— all these took up till about September 92, till which time, the defaulters were allowed to work the farms. They had also paid up, by that time, Rs 747-13-8 towards their arrears. The General Asst: Commr of the Hassan Dt: proceeded to the spot and sold the farms on 16th September/92 with the result that they realized Rs 281-9-0 per mensem against Rs 446-4-0 which they had fetched in the original sale. The agreement with the 2nd purchaser was executed on the 17th September 92 The remission statement and the Amildar's report on the arrears, of 1st August/95 go to show that the 2nd lease was from 4th October/92 to the end of March/93. The amount recovered by resale has been put down at Rs 1662-2-0 in the remission statement which calculated at Rs 281 -9-0 per mensem gives 5 months and 28 days or exactly the interim be-tween 4th October 92 & the end of March/93

2. The properties of the defaulters were proceeded against for recouping the loss by resale and the arrears due by them The house which Rajagopal Naidu was living in, and which was thought to be

was found to belong to his brother.
The house of Davood Sahib had been encumbered by a civil Suit, as having been mortgaged to a Marvadi by name Ratnaji The local authorities denied the mortgagee's claim on the ground that the mortgage was effected nearly two months after the Toddy Muntchalika was executed.
On his appeal ~~[illegible]~~, the Govt: decided, in their Proc.
No: 1567-8 / Pet 127 Dated 20th July/93, that Toddy arrears could not establish a paramount claim over all other bona-fide Civil claims; and observed that in the case under adverstence, the house in particular had not been hypothecated to Govt:, by the defaulter for Toddy Rents.

they however thought fit that the right and title of Davood Sahib or his right to redeem the ~~not~~ mortgage could be sold. This latter was sold on the 26th March/96 and fetched Rs 90/-.

3. The moveables of the defaulters were laid hold of and sold for Rs 15-5-3.

4. The defaulters do not possess any other property either moveable or immoveable.
In fact, they were all aliens to the Taluk and even their whereabouts cannot now be traced. To confirm these, the Shanbhog's deposition has been forwarded

5 The remission
is therefore inevitable

following accounts showing how the amount to be remitted comes to ~~be~~ Rs 2393-7-1:-

Total rentals due from the defaulters		Rs 5,355-0-0
Deduct:-
Kists paid	747-13-8
Sale proceeds of properties	105-5-3
Amount realized by resale	1,662-2-0
Amount of deposit adjusted towards arrears	446-4-0 2,961-8-11
Balance due		2,393-7-1

Out of this, as it was ordered already in Govt Prop No: 1567-8 Pet 127 of 20th July/93, that the defaulters' dues would be reckoned as a special case, at Rs 281-9-0 per month during the period of their possession of the farm, ~~thereafter~~, a remission of Rs 1,976-4-4 (i.e. the difference between 446-4 X 12 and 281-9 X 12), has already been stipulated for, though the amount was not actually written off the accounts pending the disposal of the remaining arrears and the sanction to a formal remission statement. The virtual remission will therefore be for:-

Rs 2,393-7-1

Rs 1,976-4-4

Rs. 417-3-1

Serial no (8) on file

This case came up before Sir [illegible] and they, on careful consideration of the case, have passed final orders in their proceedings of the 20th July 1893. ~~In which~~ It was directed that the arrears due by the defaulting contractors for the period of their possession of the farm should, as a special concession be calculated at the reduced monthly rent of Rs 281-9-- obtained for it at the re-sale & that the amount thus calculated should be recovered from the three contractors in default. The amount accordingly due from the contractors ~~[illegible]~~ as directed in the above proceedings would only be Rs 417-3-1, though the Govt. proposed that for the whole year the monthly rental should be calculated as a special concession as Rs 281-9, no formal remission statement was sanctioned for the difference between the former and contract amount & the amount obtained at the resale. That difference viz. amount viz Rs (1) 446-4 x 12 — 281-9 x 12 would be Rs 1976-4- and therefore the present remission statement is for Rs 1976-4 + 417-3-1 = Rs 2393-7-1
